REGINA (October 27) - The W. A. Durie Prize, valued at $90, has been awarded to Mr. Kimble George Bradley, 58 Haultain Crescent, Regina, Saskatchewan.

This prize was made possible by Mrs. Durie to honour the memory of her late husband, a long time resident of the Moose Jaw area. It is awarded annually at Regina Campus for scholarly work done in western Canadian history, or in the Canadian Plains Area Study Program.

Mr. Bradley was born in Weyburn and attended schools at Yellow Grass, Assiniboia, and Regina, before entering University at Regina Campus. He plans to continue his education with studies in Law.
