REGINA (November 28) - The Conservatory of Music at the University of Saskatchewan, Regina Campus, will present Sandra Hoffman, flutist, and Marylou Kolbinson, pianist, in a program of works for flute and piano at the Recital Hall of the Conservatory of Music, on Friday, December 1st at 8:15 p.m. The program will include Sonata in B flat major by C.P.E. Bach, Introduction and Variations, op. 160 by Schubert, Le Merle Noir by Olivier Messiaen, Syrinx by Claude Debussy, and will conclude with the Duo for Flute and Piano by Aaron Copland.

The public is invited to attend and there is no admission charge.

On Sunday afternoon, December 10th at 3:00 p.m. in Darke Hall, the Conservatory Choir, conducted by Jan Van der Gucht, will present its Annual Christmas Concert.

The concert will begin with two solos from Handel's Messiah sung by Patricia Knox and Doris Lazecki. The choir will sing two groups of works by Bach, Praetorius and Vittoria and Holst, Fricker and Joubert, ending with carols arranged by David Willcocks. There will also be solos from Catherine Rempel and Graeme Mitchell and a quartet for ladies' voices by Brahms.

The public is cordially invited to attend and there is no admission charge.